ABOUT THE CENTRE

The Centre for Global Studies in Education (CGSE) comprises several components:

- research
- conferences, symposiums and seminars
- postgraduate teaching - Masters course Specialisation in Global Studies in Education & PhD studies.

The Director for The Centre for Global Studies in Education is Professor Tina Besley. She and Professor Michael A. Peters are international scholars with a wealth of book and journal publishing experience who were formerly based in top research universities in UK and USA.

The Centre for Global Studies in Education is under the auspices of the Wilf Malcolm Institute of Educational Research (WMIER) in the Faculty of Education at the University of Waikato, Hamilton, New Zealand.

The Centre for Global Studies in Education offers a Specialisation in the Master of Education degree. There are four 30 point, 500 level papers, all taught fully online. CGSE courses are taught in A Semester (March) and B Semester (July). These may be taken as part of the Specialisation, or individually they may count towards another programme, with appropriate approval.

Students need to consult with Centre staff or other Faculty members about their availability for supervision for research projects as either a Directed Study, Dissertation or Thesis.

SPECIALISATION IN GLOBAL STUDIES
For the 180 point Masters degree, with a Specialisation in Global Studies there is one required paper (PCSS587) and at least 60 points from a choice of three other global studies papers (PCSS588, 589 & 507) AND requisite research components such as a Directed Study (DSOE590 (30 points)), or Dissertation (DSOE592), or Thesis (DSOE593) (90 points).

ENROLMENT
For programme planning and enrolment advice visit the Centre for Postgraduate Study located next to the Faculty of Education’s main reception, or online see: https://education.waikato.ac.nz/qualifications/postgraduate-degrees/
