Sylff Young Leaders Research Scholarships

Closing Date: 1 October 2017

The scholarship is for PhD or Masters students at any New Zealand university who demonstrate leadership qualities or display high potential for future leadership in either public or private life.

Scholarships are offered for study towards research in either a Masters or PhD degree, in a wide range of disciplines, provided the research is in the broad fields of Humanities (ie. the study of human culture, especially literature, languages, history, art, music and philosophy) or Social Sciences (ie. the scientific study of any aspect of social behaviour and/or the functioning of society).

Professional doctorate degrees (eg. DClinPsych, DBusAdmin) are not eligible.

Candidates whose degree programmes do not appear to fit in these categories, but who feel their research qualifies them, will be asked to justify this view in their application.

Value: PhD: Stipend: $25,000 p.a. for up to three years; full tuition fees; up to $5,000 research expenses p.a. for up to three years.
Masterate: $15,000; Full tuition fees; up to $5,000 research expenses
