

Te Rōpū Manukura

Rationale

Te Rōpū Manukura, in partnership with the University Council, is the Kaitiaki (guardian) of the Treaty of Waitangi for the University of Waikato. It acts to ensure that the tertiary needs of the Iwi groups in the region of the University of Waikato are met.

Terms of Reference

1. To be the body responsible with Council to give effect to the Treaty of Waitangi in the University.
2. To provide a forum for the discussion of matters of policy which affect Māori and/or relate to the Treaty of Waitangi, and to communicate such concerns and/or interests to Iwi and to the University, as appropriate.
3. To facilitate the educational and research advancement of Iwi through partnership with the University.
4. To make recommendations for Māori representatives on University bodies.
5. To receive and request reports from the University regarding the performance of Māori students in the University, and other matters that may relate to the University, the Treaty of Waitangi, and Māori development.
6. To consult with Iwi and to promote tertiary development throughout the region including cross-crediting arrangements.
7. To offer advice concerning the resourcing and direction of the work of the School of Māori and Pacific Development.
8. To discharge such other duties and obligations as are from time to time determined by the Council and Te Rōpū Manukura.
