▼ TAU RUA MANO UNDERGRADUATE SCHOLARSHIPS 2010

BACKGROUND

---

The Tau Rua Mano Undergraduate Scholarships were established in 1999 by the School of Māori and Pacific Development with the first Scholarships awarded for the year 2000.

The purpose of the Scholarships is to assist students to undertake full-time study at any level, towards a Bachelors degree in the School of Māori and Pacific Development.

The Scholarships are awarded on the basis of academic merit, personal character, and involvement in cultural, academic, and community life. The value of the Scholarships in 2010 will be up to $1,000. The maximum tenure of the Scholarships will be one year.

REGULATIONS

1. The Scholarships shall be known as the Tau Rua Mano Undergraduate Scholarships.
2. The purpose of the Scholarship is to assist students to undertake full-time study at any level, for a Bachelors degree.
3. The Scholarship is available only to students who will be undertaking their undergraduate study in the School of Māori and Pacific Development at the University of Waikato. The Selection Panel may choose to consider applications from students in conjoint or double degree programmes where the student is clearly taking sufficient papers in the School of Māori and Pacific Development in the year of tenure.
4. Candidates for the award must be New Zealand citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand.
5. The Selection Panel will select successful candidates on the basis of academic merit, personal character and involvement in cultural, academic and community life.
6. The Selection Panel will comprise of the Dean of the School of Māori and Pacific Development, the School of Māori and Pacific Development's representative on the Scholarships Committee and the Chairperson of the Scholarships Committee, or their nominees.
7. The value of the Scholarships will be up to $1,000. Up to ten Scholarships will be made available in 2010. The Scholarships shall be paid in a single lump sum following the Panel's decision. Payments are normally made in May.
8. The Scholarship may not be held concurrently with any other bursary, scholarship, or award offered by the School of Māori and Pacific Development.
9. The maximum tenure of the Scholarships will be one year. Scholarships may only be taken up in the year for which they are offered.
10. The offer of a Scholarship must be accepted within a time specified on the formal letter of offer. If the candidate fails to accept the award within the specified time, the offer shall lapse.
11. By accepting a Scholarship, each recipient agrees to participate in any publicity concerning the Scholarships as arranged by the University of Waikato.
12. The Scholarships Committee may terminate a Scholarship at any time and recoup any funds disbursed if it is not satisfied that the holder is following the required programme or otherwise complying with the conditions governing the Scholarship. The holder of a Scholarship shall have the right to appeal to the Academic Board against any decision to terminate an award.
13. The due date for applications is 31 March annually.
