2. The Awards will be made annually to full-time or part-time graduate students who are studying in the School of Māori and Pacific Development at the University of Waikato:
 - a. Who qualify for entry into a graduate (Hons, Masters, PGDip) course of study in the School
 - b. Who demonstrate academic excellence

The Selection Panel will comprise the Dean of the School of Māori and Pacific Development, the School of Māori and Pacific Development Graduate Convenor, and the School of Māori and Pacific Development's representative on the Scholarships Committee, or their nominees.
4. The value of the Award may vary but will not exceed $2,000 for full-time students or $1,000 for part-time students at Graduate level (Hons, Masters, and PGDip). The number and value of Awards made will be dependent on the availability of funding. The Selection Panel may also take financial need into consideration during its deliberations.
5. The Selection Panel may show preference for applicants who contribute significantly to the academic and/or cultural life of the institution.
6. To qualify for an Award, candidates must be enrolled for their programme of graduate study in the year of tenure.
7. The Awards will be paid out in two equal amounts or as otherwise negotiated with the Scholarships Office in consultation with the School of Māori and Pacific Development:
 - a. For the payment of the first instalment, on confirmation of enrolment.
 - b. For payment of the second instalment, on confirmation from a relevant supervisor of the attainment of goals set, or, in the case of students doing course work, on satisfactory academic performance (passes in all papers in the previous semester) or a satisfactory report from relevant lecturers.
8. The Award may not be held concurrently with any other bursary, scholarship, or award offered by the School of Māori and Pacific Development.
