University of Waikato International Doctoral Scholarships

Expected closing dates: (Round 1) 30 September 2011 and (Round 2) 31 March 2012

In the event of significant delays, the closing date may be extended.

Level: Postgraduate

New Zealand or Australian citizens or permanent residents are not eligible to apply for a University of Waikato International Doctoral Scholarship. Provided they are not New Zealand citizens, Pasifika candidates are particularly welcome to apply.

Applicants will need to demonstrate academic excellence and the strong support of their Waikato-based Chief Supervisor. Before applying for a University of Waikato International Doctoral Scholarship, the applicant must gain the approval of the University of Waikato's Postgraduate Studies Committee to undertake doctoral studies.

International students already enrolled in a doctoral degree at the University of Waikato may apply, however the Scholarships Committee is likely to favour applications from new students, i.e. those about to start, or still in the first year of, doctoral enrolment.

These Scholarships have a tenure of up to three years, pay a living allowance of $22,000 per annum (paid in monthly instalments), and also cover a student's domestic tuition fees for the duration of the Scholarship.

The 2012 regulations and application forms will soon be available on our website www.waikato.ac.nz/scholarships. (In the meantime, the 2011 documents on the same website will give readers an idea of the likely application processes.)

Georgia Rotary Student Program

Closing date 1 October 2011

Level: Undergraduate

The Rotarians of the State of Georgia, USA, operate a programme by granting scholarships to students to study in the colleges and universities in Georgia. By using the means of scholarships, they are trying to promote international goodwill through the bonds of friendship and understanding with one another. The Rotarians of the State of Georgia believe that the bonds of international friendship can be strengthened with Rotarians in other countries by nominating students for the scholarships offered. The Rotary Clubs in Georgia select the students and provide them with a host family, even though recipients are required to live on the college campus. Applicants must be at over 18 and under 25 years of age as at August 1 of the scholastic year. The Scholarship pays all scholastic costs, including tuition, book allowance, college provided room and food. It does not cover transportation expenses to or from the United States or medical costs. The scholarship covers one scholastic year, from August to May, and is only for colleges and universities located in the State of Georgia, USA.

Commonwealth Scholarship to the UK (Universities NZ (formerly NZVCC))

Closing date 1 November 2011

Level: Postgraduate

Those who wish to apply for this extremely competitive Scholarship must contact Gwenda (gwenda@waikato.ac.nz) in the Scholarships Office before they start the on-line application process.

The on-line application will be rejected (and may ruin the chances of another candidate) if the applicant has not been nominated by the Scholarships Office.

A maximum of four nominations are permitted per University.

Nominations will then be shortlisted in Wellington prior to a fiercely competitive international selection process.

Candidates must be applying to study for a full-time doctoral degree in the United Kingdom; candidates who wish to apply for split-site doctoral study may also be considered. Applicants must be citizens or permanent residents of New Zealand and have graduated from a New Zealand university.
