13 July Anna Kijanowska

The brilliant Polish pianist performs works by her celebrated compatriots Chopin and Szymanowski.

20 July Lara and Amalia Hall with Katherine Austin

Prize-winning violinist Amalia Hall joins her sister Lara for a concert of violin gems with pianist Katherine Austin.

27 July Santiago Cañón Valencia

Our internationally acclaimed young cellist plays works by Cassado, Ginastera, Debussy and Bloch, with pianist Katherine Austin.

3 August Cellophonics

The University of Waikato's cello octet treats audiences to a sonorous and melodious musical experience.

10 August Student Concert

Pianists Andrew Leathwick and Rafaella Garlick-Grice perform in preparation for the Lev Vlassenko Piano Competition in Australia.

17 August David Guerin

The distinguished New Zealand pianist makes a welcome return with Beethoven's Op.2 No.2, Chopin's B flat minor Scherzo, and Liszt's Vallee d'Obermann.

7 September Adrianna Lis and William Dowdall

Polish and Irish flute virtuosos combine with pianist Katherine Austin with fireworks and fantasy guaranteed to thrill.

14 September New Zealand Chamber Soloists

Fresh from their CMNZ tour, Lara Hall, Katherine Austin and James Tennant perform Schubert and Brahms' most beautiful trios, in E flat major and B major.

21 September Student Concert

Conservatorium of Music students delight and inspire with a variety of solo and chamber works.

28 September Dieter Flury and Maria Prinz

This duo brings together two of the finest soloists in Europe, Vienna Philharmonic Principal Flutist Dieter Flury (hailed as a "flute Paganini") and the acclaimed pianist, Maria Prinz. This is their only concert in New Zealand, an event not to be missed!

5 October X-Improviso

The music duo X-Improviso, Star Sherret (piano, tabla and percussion) and Christoph Maubach (flute, piano, and guitar), create music reflecting Aotearoa's varied land and seascapes.
