

UNIVERSITY ORCHESTRA

Gallagher Concert Chamber, WEL Academy of Performing Arts

Sunday 25 July 2.30pm University Chamber Orchestra Winter Concert

This 2010 winter concert will be filled with the passionate, spirited playing that audiences have come to expect. Conductor James Tennant will be joined by conductor and rising star of the New Zealand scene, Adam Maha, in a glorious programme that includes Vaughan Williams' Fantasia on a Theme by Thomas Tallis, Dvořák's melodious and uplifting Sixth Symphony and Beethoven's sparkling First Piano Concerto with our own Katherine Austin as soloist.

Adults $20 | Seniors $15 | Students $10
Tickets available from ticketek.com or phone 0800 TICKETEK or in person at the WEL Academy

Sunday 3 October 2.30pm University Chamber Orchestra Spring Concert

A festival of Vivaldi awaits concertgoers, including the famous Four Seasons, featuring Lara Hall as the violin soloist. This concert will also include Vivaldi's Concerto for two cellos, Concerto for guitar, and two vocal arias, all performed by our exceptional students including cellists Santiago Cañon Valencia and Edward King, guitarist Maruata Kelly and soprano Beverley Pullon.

Adults $20 | Seniors $15 | Students $10
Tickets available from ticketek.com or phone 0800 TICKETEK or in person at the WEL Academy

University of Waikato Bachelor of Music performance students give additional recitals over the course of the year in various centres throughout Waikato and beyond. Check your local events listings for details.

OPERA

Gallagher Concert Chamber, WEL Academy of Performing Arts

Sunday 1 August 2.30pm The Old Maid and the Thief

Menotti's hilarious comic opera about morals, hypocrisy and covert desires is brought to life by students and staff of the University of Waikato Music Programme. Hillary Scholar and former Dame Malvina Emerging Artist with NBR New Zealand Opera, Julia Booth, plays the part of Laetitia, the not-so-innocent "help" to Miss Todd. Second-year voice student Diantha Hillenbrand takes the role of the opinionated and overbearing old maid, Miss Todd. Hillary Scholars Beverley Pullon and Michael Petrus are Miss Pinkerton, the local supercilious gossip and Bob, the thief, or is he? An afternoon of entertainment not to be missed!

Adults $20 | Seniors $15 | Students/Children $10
Tickets at the door

MASTERCLASSES

Wednesday 21 July 5pm NZSO Foundation Masterclass – Li Wei

This year's NZSO Foundation Masterclass will be given by the internationally acclaimed Chinese cellist, Li Wei, who thrills audiences around the world with his immaculate technique and wonderfully sensitive musicianship. A warm and dedicated teacher also, Li-Wei will put three University of Waikato cellists through their paces. This masterclass promises to be inspirational for students and observers alike.

Open to the public | Entry by donation

Wednesday 29 September 2.30pm James D. Niblock

James Niblock presents this masterclass for University of Waikato voice students. Director of Choral and Vocal Activities at Colgate University, Hamilton, New York state, Niblock's specialities are in conducting, studio vocal instruction, voice science, choral literature and repertoire, and ensemble rehearsal methods.

Open to the public | Entry by donation
