The number of papers taken each year and the order of papers can be adapted to suit students' individual requirements.

Students who wish to enroll in both LAWS305 and LAWS426 may count LAWS426 as one of the optional law 4 papers.

To satisfy Council of Legal education requirements, students wishing to proceed to the Institute of Professional Legal Studies Programme and admission as a Barrister and Solicitor, must complete a level 4 paper in Legal Ethics (10 points).

Students with an Accountancy Major (CA Track) will have additional requirements, including LAWS305 as a compulsory paper. Please refer to the WMS Handbook.

The core paper MNGT221 which is a requirement for the BMS degree is met by passing LAWS204 and is replaced by an additional BMS elective paper at 200 level or above.

Students enrolled in the Waikato Management School must complete the Writing Competency module, by the end of Semester A in their first year, and the Computer Competency module and Employment Skills module by the end of the degree, as prescribed in the Waikato Management School Student Handbook.

Students must enroll in at least one paper for each of the component degrees each year, unless the requirements of one component degree have already been completed.
