The Peter Ayson Undergraduate Award in Sport and Community (previously the Peter Ayson Undergraduate Scholarship in Health, Sport and Human Performance) was established in 2017 by University of Waikato Alumnus and athletics champion Peter Ayson. The Award aims to support undergraduate students who show academic merit and strong commitment to sport and the community, enabling them to further their studies.

1. Eligibility
   1.1. To be eligible, candidates must:
       a) have completed at least one year of their undergraduate degree and be enrolled or intending to enroll full-time (i.e. 120 points) in the year of tenure;
       b) be a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident;
       c) not be eligible for fees-free, nor have any other fees scholarship;
       d) have maintained at least a ‘B’ average in their previous year of study;
       e) demonstrate exceptional commitment to a sport; and
       f) undertake some kind of voluntary work in the community.

2. Value
   2.1. The value of the Award will be $3,000, and will be paid in one lump sum towards the successful recipient’s tuition fees (including the student services levy).

3. Application
   3.1. The closing date for applications is 28 February each year.
   3.2. Along with the prescribed application form, each applicant must submit:
       a) a two-page personal statement that includes the following subheadings:
          • Commitment to sport, including evidence of involvement in the sporting community
          • Details of voluntary work
          • Academic achievements
          • Future study/career plans
       b) a brief CV (no longer than four A4 pages in length); and
       c) two references (one academic and one character).
   3.3. Applicants who have studied at another tertiary institution must supply verified copies of their academic transcripts.

4. Selection Criteria
   4.1. The Award will be offered based on evidence of the applicant’s commitment to their sport and/or commitment to volunteering, e.g. coaching or mentoring. The Selection Panel will also take into consideration the applicant’s academic achievements.
5. Selection Panel

5.1. The Selection Panel will comprise the Chair of the Scholarships Committee (in the Chair), a University of Waikato academic staff member with expertise in sport nominated by the Chair, and Peter Ayson (the Donor), or nominees.

5.2. The Selection Panel may refrain from making a recommendation if it finds no candidate of sufficient merit.

5.3. The Selection Panel’s decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into following the selection meeting.

5.4. The Selection Panel may contact referees, on a confidential basis, for further relevant information. The University may not divulge details to applicants about the content of such confidential references without the written authorisation of these referees.

6. Awarding

6.1. The offer of an Award must be accepted by the date indicated in the letter of offer. If any applicant declines an Award, or does not take it up by the due date, the offer shall lapse.

6.2. The Award will have a maximum tenure of one year and must be taken up in the year for which it is offered.

7. Other Conditions

7.1. The successful recipient may be required to attend a presentation ceremony to acknowledge their success.

7.2. The Award may be held together with any other scholarship or award, unless the conditions of the other preclude this (see also clause 1.1c).

7.3. The Scholarships Committee may terminate an Award at any time, and recoup any funds disbursed, if the holder withdraws from the University during the tenure of the award, brings the University or Donor into disrepute¹, or is otherwise not complying with the regulations governing the Award. The holder of an Award shall have the right to appeal to the Scholarships Executive against any decision to terminate the Award.

7.4. By accepting the offer of an Award, the recipient agrees to participate in any publicity concerning the Award arranged by the Donor and/or the University of Waikato.

7.5. In signing and returning the acceptance form, the recipient will be deemed to have read, understood, and accepted the terms and conditions of the Award and the University’s Scholarships Policy.

7.6. The Scholarships Committee may, from time to time, vary these regulations.
