Postgraduate English Language Proficiency Requirements and International English Language Equivalencies

Overview

The University of Waikato sets standards for English language proficiency for admission to the University for international applicants. All international applicants are required to provide satisfactory evidence of their proficiency in English.

The purpose of this document is to outline what will be accepted as satisfactory evidence for this requirement. Please note that domestic applicants are not included.

Please contact international@waikato.ac.nz for any queries relating to this document.

APPENDIX 3: English Language Entry Requirements (Postgraduate & Higher Research Degrees)

Applicants whose first language is not English or te reo Māori are required to provide satisfactory evidence of English language proficiency, generally in the form of an IELTS (academic) or TOEFL examination score. Scores can vary according to the qualification sought.

1. International students for whom English is a First Language

English will be considered the first language of citizens (passport holders) of the following countries, regardless of their actual place of residence and who have evidence of successful tertiary study or a senior secondary qualification in the medium of English:

- The United Kingdom
- The Republic of Ireland
- The United States of America
- Canada (including all provinces, if the qualification has been taught in English)
- Singapore

New Zealand and Australian citizens and permanent residents are not included as they are domestic students and therefore do not fall under the international student language requirement.

International applicants with te reo Māori as their first language will be considered on a case-by-case basis by the Divisions.

2. English Proficiency Tests

All test results are valid for two years from the date of the test to the proposed start date at the University of Waikato. The requirements must be met within one test sitting or on one certificate.

- TOEFL Internet-based test (IBT). Must meet the following scores in each module: Listening - 24; Reading - 24; Writing - 27; Speaking – 23.

All other evidence is considered on a case-by-case basis.

4. Prior Study in English

Prior study in English is valid for two years from the completion of the English programme to the start date of the student’s programme at the University of Waikato.

If applicants can provide evidence of further study or work in the medium of English, or hold a passport from a country where English is the predominant language¹ and where there is evidence of further study or work in the medium of English, this validity is for five years. Each applicant will be assessed on a case-by-case basis.

4.3. Offshore Campuses

Some qualifications are offered by universities and polytechnics at offshore campuses in the medium of English. Successful completion of qualifications at bachelor degree level or higher from these campuses within timeframes specified in this document is deemed acceptable for English Language equivalency for admission to postgraduate studies.

5. Study Abroad and Exchange

In the case of exchange and study abroad students (who are not applying for degrees at the University of Waikato), study must have been completed no more than two years before the commencement of their programme at the University of Waikato in addition to meeting one of the following requirements:

5.1. Tertiary Study in English Medium

Prior enrolment in Bachelor degree study or above at a university or polytechnic from a country listed under (4.2).

5.2. Letter of Recommendation

A letter of recommendation is acceptable from an authorised faculty staff member from a partner university, from one of the countries below, stating that the applicant has sufficient proficiency in English to cope with English medium tertiary study. This letter must be based on the applicant's study of English as a Second Language or study in the medium of English. Direct applicants should provide evidence of English language proficiency as per University guidelines. These countries are:

• Denmark
• Finland
• Germany
• Norway
• Sweden
• The Netherlands

A letter of recommendation is acceptable from applicants from partner institutions from the following countries:

• France

6. Waivers

Students who do not meet the English language admission requirements as outlined above may in exceptional circumstances be granted a waiver.

All students applying for a waiver for admission to sub-doctoral qualifications will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. All students who are granted a waiver will be required to sit a post-entry language assessment (PELA) within one month of commencement of study, and to undertake any recommended support.

All students applying for a waiver for admission to a doctoral programme will be assessed on a case-by-case basis. A request must be submitted by the relevant Division to the Postgraduate Research Committee through the Associate Deans/Director (Postgraduate). All students who are granted a waiver will be required to sit a post-entry language assessment (PELA) within one month of commencement of study, and to undertake any recommended support.
