The Sir Edmund Hillary Scholarship was established in 2005 and named in honour of New Zealand’s greatest adventurer. The Scholarship is for well-rounded individuals who display strengths in three key pillars: 1) academic achievement, 2) strong sporting or creative or performing art abilities, and 3) leadership potential. Recipients will be Hillary Scholars and will be supported on the Sir Edmund Hillary Scholarship Programme, which supports scholars with excellence in academia, and leadership while they continue in their sport or creative and performing art. Up to 20 scholarships are awarded each year each with a total value of up to $30,000. For more information, visit: https://www.waikato.ac.nz/scholarships/search/hillary.

4.4. The Selection Panel will consider the applications and determine recipients based on the Selection Criteria.

4.5. The Selection Panel’s decisions are final and no correspondence will be entered into following the selection meeting.

5. Other Conditions

5.1. Recipients who take up this scholarship are expected to complete at least four trimesters of full-time study at the University of Waikato (i.e., 240 points). Those who withdraw their enrolment before the end of this period will normally be required to pay back the full sum of monies received.

5.2. If, during the tenure of the Scholarship, a student withdraws from any paper(s) after the University’s withdrawal deadline, they will be liable for the relevant fees.

5.3. If a recipient is in receipt of a student allowance, another scholarship, or any type of financial assistance, it is their responsibility to check their entitlement to other income and any tax implications.

5.4. Through the School of Graduate Research, and the High Performance Student Scholarship Manager, the University regularly monitors the recipients’ performance, and reserves the right to impose further conditions where a student’s progress, conduct or participation is unsatisfactory.

5.5. The Scholarship may not be held in conjunction with any other University of Waikato funded scholarship or any other University of Waikato funding that includes either a tuition fees credit or accommodation credit as a component. The exception is where a scholarship is for financial hardship (e.g., the D.V. Bryant Trust University of Waikato Residential Scholarship).
5.6. The Scholarship may be held in conjunction with any other scholarship, award or prize (e.g., the Prime Minister's Scholarship), unless the conditions of the other award preclude this.

5.7. The Scholarships Committee may terminate a Scholarship at any time, and recoup any funds disbursed, if the holder withdraws from the University of Waikato during the tenure of the Scholarship, brings the University or the Sir Edmund Hillary Scholarship Programme into disrepute\(^4\), or is otherwise not complying with the regulations governing the Scholarship and/or the University of Waikato. The recipient of a Scholarship will have the right to appeal to the Scholarships Executive against any decision to terminate the award.

5.8. The Scholarships Committee has the power to amend or vary these regulations provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the Scholarship.
