The John Allan Scholarship in Education was made possible by a donation from John Allan, the first Principal of the Hamilton Teachers’ College. John Allan held this position for twenty years until his retirement in 1979. During that time, he successfully implemented innovative teacher education programmes including a three-year primary training qualification, one year longer than existing programmes. John Allan’s vision and progressive leadership was acknowledged when he was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by The University of Waikato in 1980.
