BACKGROUND

The Acorn Foundation is a charitable trust which was formed in 2003, to connect generous people who care with causes that matter, forever.

Funds received are invested in perpetuity, and the investment income is used to support community groups and provide scholarships.

Eva Trowbridge was born in Sunderland, England and emigrated to New Zealand with her husband, Norman, in 1962. Eva did domestic cleaning at the Tauranga Hospital for 25 years. Norman was a painter for the Railways for many years and died in 1999 (aged 81 years).

Eva was a quiet lady who loved everything about England. She was a staunch Royalist and loved “red, white and blue”.
