HANDY HINT:
It sometimes happens that a reference letter is still missing at the scholarship application deadline.
For most scholarships, reference letters can still be submitted in the four days that follow the closing date.
So, if you know that a reference is missing, don’t make the mistake of abandoning your scholarship application!
Submit your application, and then remind your referee that they need to submit their letter urgently as per the application instructions.

SCHOLARSHIP SEMINAR & WORKSHOP
Scholarships to (and from) the USA
The Fulbright team will visit the University of Waikato to inform interested students and staff about study, research, and teaching opportunities in the United States, and the Fulbright Awards which can help you get there.

OTHER FUNDING

Looking for further funding to support your study? The Generosity New Zealand Funding Information Service offers the givME website http://apps.generosity.org.nz/givME (formerly BreakOut).

Please note that givME is a subscriber service; checking it from a ‘private’ computer can cost a lot!

We strongly recommend that you use a University of Waikato computer, as we pay a ‘blanket’ subscription.

If you don’t have access to a University computer, access givME from a site that already pays a subscription, e.g. a public library.

Tauranga students can also access the givMe website from the University of Waikato campus in Tauranga.

To use this database under the University of Waikato subscription, you will first need to register to access the generosityNZ website by going through the UoW Scholarships webpage under ‘Other funding’ on a UoW campus computer, create a login & password to register.

Once you have completed your registration, you will receive an email confirmation.

You will now be able to access this database on any device outside of the University of Waikato by using the link on the Scholarships website under ‘Other Funding’.
Please note: We have tried to indicate the ‘Level’ of each award. Please treat this information as a guide only; you still need to check the regulations to confirm your eligibility.
