

Climate Change and Law in the Run-up To the Paris Meeting

CEREL Student Event

The governments of more than 190 nations will gather in Paris Conference from 30 November – 11 December 2015. The conference hopes to achieve a new international agreement on the climate applicable to all countries.

The Centre of Environment, Resources and Energy Law (CEREL) has organised a panel discussion for Waikato students and staff. The panel of presenters will be made up of Professor Al Gillespie who will speak of the international context and negotiations, Barrister Simon Schofield will concentrate on the New Zealand Law and recent developments and Professor Barry Barton will focus on energy policy in New Zealand and what we can actually do.

DATE: Wednesday, 14 October 2015

TIME: 1:00 - 2:00 pm

WHERE: S.G.01

A light lunch will be provided.

Please RSVP to mrakena@waikato.ac.nz for catering purposes by 12 October 2015.

For more information visit waikato.ac.nz/go/CEREL

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato