Level: Secondary / Undergraduate
The Young Women in Public Affairs (YWPA) Award encourage young women to participate in public affairs by recognizing the candidate’s commitment to the volunteer sector, evidence of volunteer leadership achievements and a dedication to empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy. ‘Public affairs’ refers to all aspects of community life where decisions have to be made about issues which relate to and affect those communities in which people work and live.
Eligible candidates will be young women, aged 16-19 (on 1 April 2020) who are studying at secondary or tertiary level, and who demonstrate the following:
- Active commitment to volunteerism
- Experience in local government, student government, or workplace leadership (paid or unpaid)
- Volunteer leadership achievements
- Knowledge of Zonta International and its programs
- Support for Zonta International’s mission of empowering women worldwide through service and advocacy

Zonta clubs around New Zealand offer this scholarship. Applications will normally be submitted through a candidate’s local Zonta club (use the Club Locator here or at www.zonta.org).

The Zonta club of Hamilton-Waikato offers a YWPA Award of up to NZ$500. This Club’s recipient’s application is then forwarded for consideration at District level, i.e. nationally, where the recipient receives an Award of up to US$1,500. From the ‘national’ recipients around the world, ten international recipients are selected; they may receive additional awards of US$4,000 each.

More details are available on the Zonta International website https://foundation.zonta.org/Our-Programs/Educational-Programs/Young-Women-in-Public-Affairs-Award.

Prospective applicants studying in the Hamilton-Waikato region should email hamiltonwaikato@zonta.org.nz or scholarships@waikato.ac.nz to request the application form.

HEERF Scholarships
Application date: Accepts applications year-round — applications generally considered March/April
Levels: Postgraduate

HEERF makes available annually a series of post graduate research scholarships open to NZ citizens and NZ permanent residence holders. The scholarships are typically linked to heavy engineering industry related research proposals administered by HERA, however scholarship applicants are also able to submit their own research project proposal.

All scholarship research proposals intended for funding through HEERF are required to go through the HERA Research Panel system for evaluation and prior approval before being submitted through the HERA Director to the HEERF Trustees. For further information, visit the website http://www.hera.org.nz/MainMenu.

LEARN Fellowships
No set closing date:

The Livestock Emissions & Abatement Research Network (LEARN) is an international research network focused upon improving the understanding of greenhouse gas emissions from livestock agriculture. The Ministry of Agriculture and Forestry offers up to nine New Zealand LEARN Fellowships per annum for scientists or technicians from developing countries to work in New Zealand in the area of Livestock Emissions Research. The objectives of the network are to improve the quantification of non-CO\(_2\) greenhouse gas emissions from animal agriculture at all scales, and to facilitate the development of cost effective and practical greenhouse gas mitigation solutions.

There are two separate categories available. These are LEARN Work Trainee Awards (tenure up to six months) and LEARN Postdoctoral Fellowships (tenure up to twelve months). There is no set application close date for the Fellowships, instead they are dealt with on a case by case basis by MAF’s advisory panel. It is expected that the majority of applications/nominations will be from/for individuals who have already established links with researchers at the NZ host institution/organisation. All candidates must be registered members of the LEARN Network, and may register at www.livestockemissions.net. The terms and conditions and application form can be downloaded from the Education New Zealand (ENZ) website www.newzealandeducated.com/scholarships.
