

Chinese University of Hong Kong

Website

Experience a blend of China's rich culture, long history, and how they weave into contemporary society. Since 1963, CUHK remains the largest, greenest campus in Hong Kong, with plenty of opportunities for international students to get involved through sports, art museums, music halls, and more. With a student population of around 20,000, students can truly immerse themselves in the culture and the Chinese university environment.
