

University of Hawai'i at Hilo

Website

On Hawai'i Island, inspiration is everywhere; it's in the land, sky, sea, in the people we meet on forest trails, in local markets, and in our classrooms. Built on the coastal slopes of the world's largest mountain and centred in the Pacific Ocean, the University of Hawai'i Hilo challenges, empowers, and inspires our students. As a university community, we draw our inspiration from the people we call 'ohana and the island we call home.
