UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Website

More than just a center of learning, our campus is also the nesting place for thousands of Ducks (what we call ourselves). It's the heart of student life, where fun and interesting things happen, people and cultures mix, and lifelong friendships are forged. In Oregon, the great outdoors isn't someplace you go. They're everywhere you are. Hikes, rafting trips, rock-climbing sessions, and mountain bike excursions aren't things we only do on weekends. They're also things we do on Tuesdays, between classes.
