

Flower Scholarship in Economics – 2026

THE UNIVERSITY OF
WAIKATO
Te Whare Wānanga o Waikato

The Flower Scholarship in Economics was established in 2024 from funds donated by the late Bill and Joan Flower. The Flowers had a long-standing connection with the University, particularly in the area of economics, funding students researching in the broad areas of environmental economics, agribusiness, and global economics.

Up to two scholarships will be awarded each year with a total combined value of $20,000 available each year.

The funds are held in Trust by the University of Waikato Foundation and will be offered until 2035 when it is expected the funds will be fully depleted.

1. Purpose

- 1.1. The Scholarship supports students undertaking postgraduate research in economics.

2. Eligibility and Selection Criteria

2.1. To be eligible, candidates must at the time of application:

- 2.1.1 be enrolled full or part-time at the University of Waikato in postgraduate study with a research component in the field of economics.
