

The R. Tucker Thompson Sail Training Trust / University of Waikato Award was established in 2024 as a partnership between R. Tucker Thompson Sail Training Trust and the University to support

★ R•TUCKER•THOMPSON ★

R. Tucker Thompson Youth to gain a degree from the University of Waikato. The R Tucker Thompson Sail Training Trust was established in 2006 when the owners of the R Tucker Thompson Ship wanted to protect the future of the iconic vessel. The Trust was set up to benefit the people of Te Taitokerau Northland. All income derived from the ship's commercial activities is used for maintenance and provides a contribution towards helping teenagers gain access to the youth development voyages. The University and Trust partnered to provide accommodation support within the University Halls of Residence for one student each year until 2027.

1. Purpose

- 1.1 To recognise the strong commitment of R. Tucker Thompson Sail Trust and the University of Waikato to the people of New Zealand and the advancement of education opportunities for people from Northland, especially those who may not normally consider or be able to attend University.

2. Eligibility and Selection Criteria

5. Selection Panel

- 5.1 The Selection Panel will comprise of the Chair of the Scholarships Committee (or nominee) in the Chair, a representative of the Future Student and School Liaison Team nominated by the Director of School Engagement and Student Recruitment, and up to two R. Tucker Thompson Sail Training Trust members nominated by Chair of the Trust.
- 5.2 The Selection Panel may refrain from making a recommendation if it finds no applicant of sufficient merit.
- 5.3 The Selection Panel's decision is final, and no correspondence will be entered into following the selection meeting.

6. Other Conditions

- 6.1 The award may be held in conjunction with any other University of Waikato funded scholarship. It may also be held with any other Award, Scholarship or prize unless the conditions of the other award preclude this.
- 6.2 If a recipient is in receipt of a student allowance, another award, or any type of financial assistance, it is their responsibility to check their entitlement to other income and any tax implications.
- 6.3 Recipients who take up this Award are expected to complete at least four trimesters of full-time study at the University of Waikato. Those who withdraw their enrolment before the end of this period will normally be required to pay back the full sum of monies received.
- 6.4 Recipients must remain enrolled full-time for the period of tenure. Should a recipient withdraw from any papers, without adding sufficient papers to maintain an overall enrolment in a minimum of 120-points for the academic year, the University may ask for the Award to be repaid.
- 6.5 The University monitors students' performance and reserves the right to impose further conditions where a student's conduct is unsatisfactory.
- 6.6 Successful applicants will be advised of the offer of an award via their MyWaikato portal and must accept the offer by the prescribed date or the offer will lapse.
- 6.7 In accepting the award, the recipient:
 - 6.7.1 will be deemed to have read, understood, and accepted the conditions of the award and the Scholarships Policy.
 - 6.7.2 agrees to participate in any publicity concerning the award arranged by the University of Waikato and R. Tucker Thompson Sail Training Trust
- 6.8 The Scholarship Committee may terminate this award at any time, and recoup any funds disbursed, if the holder withdraws from the University of Waikato, brings the award, University or Donor into disrepute⁴, or is otherwise not complying with the conditions governing the Award and/or the regulations of the University of Waikato. The holder of an Award has the right to appeal to the Awards Executive against any decision to terminate the Award.
- 6.9 The Scholarships Committee has the power to amend or vary these regulations in consultation with the donor provided that there is no departure from the main purpose of the award.
